

CET-2013 - Extended Vacancy Round for Medical / Dental courses

Important Instructions to Candidates

- The candidates who have been assigned Medical ranks in CET-2013 are eligible to participate in this round by entering the options afresh.
- If the candidate gets a seat in the colleges entered by him / her in this round, the seat opted by him / her in this round will be confirmed and the seat held by him / her in the earlier round will get cancelled automatically.
- Please note that if any seat gets allotted in this round as per merit and options entered by the candidate, there is no chance of getting back the earlier allotted seat because the seat released by the candidate will be treated as consequential vacancy and will be offered to the next eligible candidates.
- In the Extended Vacancy Round, only Medical and Dental seats will be offered.
- Candidates are advised to enter all the options they want to select whether the seats shown in the seat matrix or not, only for the reason that consequential vacancies may arise during allotment process and the candidates will have a chance of getting a better seat if they have entered the options.

NOTE: Consequential vacancies that arise after their turn cannot be claimed.

- Candidates who are satisfied with the allotted seat and who are not interested / willing to participate in the Extended Vacancy Round need not enter any options in the option entry. The allotted seat in the earlier round will be confirmed.
- The candidate who is allotted seat in this round should invariably report to the allotted college on or before 5.30 pm on 24-09-2013.
- Candidates who are entering the options mean they are looking for better seat than the allotted seat in the earlier round. Therefore, candidates are advised to enter only such options which they feel that the options entered by them are better.
- If the candidate does not get any seat in the Vacancy Round then the seat allotted to him / her in the earlier round if any stands confirmed.

- The seat allotted in the earlier round will not be shown in the option entry in the Vacancy Round, but the same will be considered as the last option during Extended Vacancy Round.
- All candidates who have been allotted afresh in this round should compulsorily join the colleges after making payment and report to KEA portal for confirmation otherwise seat gets cancelled.
- The fee paid by the candidates in the earlier round if any, will be adjusted upon allotment of a seat in this Extended Vacancy Round.

The following type of Medical and Dental seats will be offered for allotment.

- a. Cancelled seats after Vacancy Round.
- b. Seat allotted in Vacancy Round but not reported to the college.
- c. Fees not paid after allotment of seats in Vacancy Round.
- d. Newly added seats.
